High Flight

*Oh, I have slipped the surly bonds of earth,
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed and joined the tumbling mirth
Of sun-split clouds—and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of—wheeled and soared and swung
High in the sunlit silence. Hov'ring there,
I've chased the shouting wind along and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air.
Up, up the delirious, burning blue
I've topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace,
Where never lark, or even eagle, flew;
And, while with silent, lifting mind I've trod
The untrespassed sanctity of space,
Put out my hand, and touched the face of God.*

Edison, Our School . . .

Under the supervision of the Harry Findley Construction Company a new twenty-five room wing has been added to the school. Edison's new addition is two floors and houses chemistry, math, foreign language, and English rooms. This new wing is one more step in helping Edison students gain the academic excellence required in today's progressive world.

Inspires Us to Reach Higher Goals . . .

Realizing that education is the key to success, Edison students show their desire to learn in their daily activities. They attempt to bridge the gap of understanding between nations through the A.F.S. program and by enjoying our heritage of literature from Shakespeare to Sallinger.

In previous years, Edison High School students have attained excellence in scholastic endeavor, which is exemplified by the twenty-six National Merit Scholarship Semi-Finalists. Both faculty and students are dedicated to maintaining and improving this record. This cannot be accomplished without hard work, time, effort, and diligent study.

Through Study . . .

Extracurricular activities play an integral part in the lives of all Edison students. By enthusiastic participation in pep rallies, school-sponsored clubs, and homeroom activities, we grow in esprit de corps. This spirit of cooperative participation which exists in the student body has been a great factor in building the enviable reputation which Edison enjoys. No project has been too extensive for this student body to culminate successfully, whether it be related exclusively to school, or extended into the wider community of civic enterprise.

Administration

Since 1944, Dr. Charles C. Mason has served as Superintendent of the Tulsa Public Schools. In this period of time the system has changed from a small, compact system to a large metropolitan system covering approximately 140 square miles over 90 different buildings. The teaching personnel totals over 2700 and the student population rose to over 75,000 during the year.

Besides his excellent work as chief administrator of the Tulsa School system, Dr. Mason also acts as executive officer of the Tulsa Board of Education. Legal voters of the district elect the members of the board for three-year terms. These members are civic minded citizens who further the aims of education and serve without remuneration.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

LAHMAN D. JONES

Standing as a constant reminder of the excellence of education in the Tulsa Public Schools, the Education Service Center serves as the coordinator of Tulsa's educational programs.

Edison is extremely proud of its numerous achievements—its scholarships, its outstanding reputation as a scholastic institution, and its prowess on the athletic field. These accomplishments were largely inspired by the outstanding leadership we are so fortunate to possess in our principal, Mr. Lewis Cleveland. The example of the lighthouse in the following quotation by H. W. Beecher aptly describes our principal

Every man should use his intellect, not as he uses his lamp in the study, but as the lighthouse uses its lamps, that those afar off on the sea may see the shining light and learn their way

Mr. Lewis Cleveland has gathered his books and papers about him in his study.

Through the many aspects of his life, Mr. Cleveland must meet and confer with people of many kinds. Although his busy schedule prevails, he courteously pauses for a moment in the Study to receive his guests.

Mr. Cleveland takes a moment for a break during one of his busy days.

Junior and senior high nurses, Mrs. Evelyn Duncan and Mrs. Virginia Washburn, are always willing and ready to aid ill or injured students while at school.

Proper guidance is the key to success. We learn by following, and therefore following the correct example is extremely important. We are especially fortunate to have counselors and administrators who are deeply concerned with the future of the student body, and who work diligently to guide each student to a thorough and wholesome education. These people have given us invaluable assistance during our junior high and high school years, and the example they have set has helped to lay a strong foundation for the future. Such a foundation has provided a basis for the structure of a more perceptive and understanding individual who shall be prepared to meet the challenges of an ever-changing world.

Junior and senior high assistant principals, Mr. Robert Kirtz and Mr. Donald Hoopert, who undertake much responsibility in their duties, always take a break during their workday.

As senior help comes, Mr. Jerrel Beller and Dr. Sarah Butcher assist students in the school and faculty.

Mrs. Clarence Clark willingly gives a B. K. K. with assistance in every possible situation.

As part of the work, Mr. Clark and Mrs. Clark make every opportunity to assist students in their work.

Mrs. Foster Davis, a true friend of the P. E. A. cause, poses for the camera. Mrs. Davis is a member of the P. E. A. and is extremely active in its work.

Keeping our active in their working role are from front to back: Mrs. Orlean Baker, Mrs. Emma Lee Curry, Mrs. Emma Curry, Mrs. Emma George, Mrs. Pearl Campbell, and Mrs. Rose Lee.

Senior High English

Three years of English include the study of literature and writing. Through composition, each student is taught to express himself clearly and concisely. Through the analytical study of classical and contemporary literature, each student begins to understand the motivations of both the author and the characters, and in this way, learns to understand the many facets of human nature. When he leaves Edison, the student carries with him the insight he has gained from three years of study.

Roger Love is one of many students who depend on Bethel Delav, Senior High librarian, to keep him informed on good books and literature.

To increase their interest and understanding of modern times, part of the ninth grade English curriculum, Mr. Lester Garrison's students prepare papers and reports in speech classes.

Mrs. Berna Dean Morrow, one of Edison's outstanding English teachers, rewards the efforts of her students by presenting an interesting and outlined English program.

Science

Every day man is making newer and more complicated scientific discoveries. To keep its student body aware of these new advances, Edison has provided its students with an opportunity to obtain an extensive knowledge into the fundamentals of science. The courses including general and physical science, physiology, biology, chemistry, and physics, build a strong foundation and provide the incentive which Edison graduates carry to technological schools across the nation.

To more vividly illustrate the difference in anatomies to Jane Musgrave, Mr. Ayres compares that of the frog to the more highly specialized anatomy of a man.

Mathematics

Mathematics is designed to encourage the student to use his logic and ingenuity. At Edison the student has the chance to demonstrate his ability to think by taking advanced courses including analytic geometry and calculus, and the new MSG program. It is the result of such programs that the Edisonite has a firm foundation for his future endeavors.

Speech

Barbara Burket

Dave Crowell

Sandra Lutten

Speaking is an activity that you learn: begun as an initiative process, it becomes a habit. Speech is total personal communication. And the only rule in speech is to communicate effectively. Good speakers are not born, they are made. And each one is made by himself. Since speech proves to be a vital part of any successful person, the Edison student is provided with excellent instruction in this field by those who know their subject well. Active participation in plays, assemblies, and skits increase the students' speaking and acting abilities and provides him with a measure of enjoyment that can be gained through no other field.

Music is such an important part of a well-rounded individual that the development of musical talent is greatly encouraged by Edison through a variety of music classes. Much interest is given the more advanced musician as well as the beginner by the excellent faculty directing the school's music courses. Being fine musicians themselves, these teachers are fully aware of the benefits of musical talent and hope to develop it successfully in every one of their pupils.

It has been said that a man must be physically strong to be mentally alert. In keeping with this philosophy, the students are encouraged to participate in the athletic program. For the student who wants to enter competitive athletics, Edison offers interscholastic competition, and for others intramural athletics.

Business Education

Vocational training is a necessity to the student who plans a career in the world of business. To prepare these students for the time to come, Edison's business education department offers basic training in typing, accounting, shorthand, and the operation of business machines. When the future businessman leaves Edison, he can build upon the firm foundation he has already established.

Art

High school art is an introduction into the humanities. Basic art ushers the student into the world of aesthetics and begins to develop his appreciation of beauty. More advanced courses challenge his creativity and encourages him to grasp the deep meaning of true beauty. For the student who is deeply motivated by the humanities, Edison offers a course in related arts, which teaches him the relationship between painting, sculpture and architecture.

The willing hand of M. Sue Johnson has created these art projects to help her classmates work with art better and at all times.

Making French class both enjoyable and educational is the main objective of junior high French teacher, Miss Judith Samuel.

Foreign Language

The world is continually changing and its population is continually expanding. These changes have made our international society a complex and cosmopolitan community. Such a society demands that we intermingle and understand our contemporaries. No longer may we withdraw ourselves from international affairs. We must integrate ourselves into the community of nations of the world, and to be able to do this we must be able to converse in languages alien to the English-speaking world. Edison offers its students an opportunity to take as many as six years of foreign language. These courses may enable the student to cross the language barrier and become a part of an internationalized globe.

Industrial Arts

Development of manual skills through Edison's industrial arts department begins with basic skills and ranges through the more advanced areas such as electronics. These skills, requiring dexterity and mechanical inclination, provide excellent vocational preparations, as well as further practice for hobbies begun outside of the classroom. Included in Edison's industrial arts program are: basic drafting, machine drafting, architectural drafting, electronics 1 and 2, power mechanics, and in the junior high are woodwork techniques and metalcraft. Participation in these courses prepare students to do the basic repairs in most households and provide incentive to further investigate vocational fields which interest them. The atmosphere of the industrial arts workshops produces a feeling of camaraderie as the students work on individual projects as well as sharing responsibility for group projects.

Students in Mr. Alexander's modern history classes follow the time line from the era of the French Revolution to the contemporary period

Social Studies

The records of the past are an unrolled scroll of prophecy. They offer man the clues into the causes and effects of his past actions, and teach him lessons which may help him to ameliorate society for future generations. Edison offers its student body a wide selection of courses which may unroll these lessons before them, so that they, too, may be able to better the future.

Student Life

The sophomore class presents a collection of framed portraits of Thomas Edison to our school at the supper assembly during Edison Week.

The flag raising is a ceremony of inspiration and devotion.

Each year in commemoration of our namesake we celebrate Edison Week. This year, chairman Roger Boesche, working with Mr. Dobelbower and various committee chairmen, Judy Johnson, Jeanne Heuser, Marsha Miller, Ken Shoemaker, and Janine Henshaw, helped to make this Week an unparalleled success.

Monday, School Spirit Day, commenced with a pep rally in the field house and was followed by the launching of our weather balloon. On Tuesday, in honor of Teacher's Appreciation Day, a luncheon was given for the teachers by the student council. Tuesday evening, a motion picture thriller, the "Blob" was shown in the auditorium. The Brotherhood Breakfast was held Wednesday morning. Also, in commemoration of Brotherhood Day, a wishing well was placed in the foyer with contributions going to CARE. Thomas Edison Day opened with the traditional flag raising ceremony. A program on the life of Thomas Edison was presented on the intercom and, at 7:30 in the field house, the annual Gridiron talent show was held. Edison Week climaxed with the announcement of student superlatives and Mr. Edison.

The unique portrayal of a typical E. M. poem, presented in the Gridiron show, is characterized by instant taking and arguments and authors' distances.

Edison Week

Candidates for Mr. Edison are Steve Kaplan, Drew Nixie, Alan Fedman, Russell Beck and Jan Kowalski who is not pictured.

"Pach" is presented to Mr. Markham by his appreciative homeroom on Teacher's Appreciation Day.

The Student Council welcomes students from fifteen Edison schools to the annual Brotherhood Breakfast.

George Singer leaves for Capetown, South Africa, where he will spend a year as an American Field Service exchange student.

International understanding is the key to world peace. Student exchange programs strive toward this goal and give participants the opportunity to recognize attitudes and customs other than their own. Through exchanges, a person learns to accept the weaknesses, and respect the strengths found in foreign mannerisms, and therefore may better understand his own nation's influence upon its people.

The past year at Edison has been characterized by tremendous expansion of the foreign exchange program, largely brought about through the efforts of Mrs. Presley Ford, former Edison exchange committee president, Mrs. Martha Cole, faculty sponsor, and Dr. Burkhart, president of Edison's student exchange committee. Student Council sponsored a candy sale to aid the program, and the Foreign Exchange Paperback Bookstore, headed by Richard McIntyre, chairman, and Melinda Cole, co-chairman, has also made helpful contributions.

Danielle Priasco, an International Student Placement Service student from Paris, and Fernando Mendoza Castells, an American Field Service student from Spain, have attended Edison this year. Anne Scruton spent the summer of 1964 in Scotland under the Experiment in International Living. Three Edison students returned from abroad in January: Tricia Lewis brought her sister, Cora Martinez, back from Argentina; Lonnie Donovan returned from Stockholm, Sweden, where he had lived under ISPS, the program which also sponsored Francie Marks, who attended the Katedralskole in Aalborg, Denmark.

Anne Scruton, who visited Scotland during the summer, and Lonnie Donovan, who attended school in Sweden, are selecting Swedish meats for a party given by the exchange students for the foreign exchange committee.

Mrs. Ford, faculty foreign exchange sponsor, with Merry Ellen Evans and Gail Groom, browse through the selections of the paperback bookstore in the school foyer.

Yearbook Staff

Producing a celebrated yearbook requires that hours be devoted each day by dedicated students. These exceptional people are chosen during the spring of each year. They are expected to draw layouts, write copy, select a cover and, in the end, produce a yearbook. A yearbook is the result of many combined efforts. Its purpose is to arouse memories at the close of the year and in the years to come to provide a pictorial record of some very happy moments.

Nancy Remy, our multiple editor, consoles us at deadline time, when we are all on the verge of despair.

A special feature of our annual Christmas party is the delicious dinner.

School Life

The job of the journalism staff is to reflect the life of Edison High School in its publications. These students cover activities in the "Southside Times," "No side Times" and "School Life." Their articles must be written in such a way that they will be both entertaining and interesting to the reader.

Mrs. Carney is quizzed by Donna Winer for a future article for "School Life."

Farewell, Farewell, Eugene

The Junior Class play, Farewell, Farewell, Eugene, was presented in the Edison High School auditorium on December 4 and 5.

Gertrude Povis, played by Sandra Vale is an elderly spinster who becomes involved with an abandoned child found on her doorstep. She and her sister, Minerva Povis Goodv (Jeanne Shirley) come to love the child. However, after several weeks the community welfare agency threatens to take charge of the baby. Peonie Povis (Lynn Moore), Gertrude's cousin and her fiance Chuck Bailey (Bill McCright) eagerly adopt the child. The play ends happily with the entire family together at last.

The Sophomore Class presents Winnie-the-Pooh

Winnie-the-Pooh, one of the greatest financial successes in Edison's history, was presented on February 26 and 27.

The narrator, Judy Fell, tells bedtime stories to Christopher Robin and Winnie-the-Pooh. These tales concern the adventures of that loveable bear of very little brain, Pooh. Timid Piglet, the intellectual Owl, and Eeyore fear Kanga, a fierce animal, and her offspring, Roo.

Finally, Kanga and Roo find a happy place in the forest and join in Winnie's birthday celebration.

Talons

Talons display of enthusiasm at a pep rally led by Edison's Games Editor Page.

Linda Martin, president, and Mrs. Hecorn, sponsor, thank you for providing school spirit through Pep Club activities.

Through their enthusiastic support of all school athletic events Edison's Talons stimulate much school spirit both within the school and during games. Voo-doo dolls, posters, pompoms, and mixers are but a few of their many projects and activities. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Judy Hagedorn, Talons are experiencing one of their most successful years, boasting an exceptionally large membership, which is always present to cheer our teams on to victory. The contagious enthusiasm of the leaders inspires the spectators to share in the school spirit, and parents find themselves becoming an integral part of the cheering section at athletic events. The cheerleaders work many hours away from school preparing and perfecting new routines. For the excellent service rendered, this group deserves recognition and thanks from the entire student body.

Pep Club meetings are held regularly on Friday mornings before school. Linda Martin is outlining forthcoming sports events for Talons members Established in 1929 the National Thespian Society is interested in bettering the position of Dramatic Arts in the secondary schools. This year Edison's Thespians produced "Scenes Night" in place of the annual Speech Arts play, consisting of various scenes of dramatic worth that show the many phases of drama. New members are initiated in May when they also have a picnic.

This very active organization provides the nucleus for all dramatic endeavors in the school. Their enthusiasm for theatrical artistry make them willing to assume any responsibility assigned them in various thespic productions. These duties range from work on scenery to acting and directing. This adaptability is a contributing factor to the many successful productions at Edison.

Thespians

Meetings are held in alternation schools twice a month. The name chosen for the club was the "Deutschverein" or "German Club". The purpose of the club is to explore for edification and enjoyment, areas of German culture such as language, literature, and history, and to increase the student's practical use of German.

With the purpose of furthering international relations between the Spanish speaking people and our own, The Spanish Club attempts to strengthen friendship through an understanding of the language and customs. Besides having many native speakers at their meetings, the efforts of this year include a Spanish Club dance in honor of Edison's exchange students from Mexico.

Edison's most outstanding athletes are those boys who are members of the Lettermen's Club. Each of them has achieved a letter in football, basketball, cross country, track, wrestling, and has led, swam, or jogged.

Lettermen's Club

Since the Edison Lettermen felt the need for a boys' school spirit organization, they re-established the Edison Lettermen's Club in the fall of 1961. Lettermen sell coffee and donuts at teachers' meetings and usher at Back to School night. They also live the football field at half time, sell popcorn after school, and elect athlete of the month.

Under the direction of Tom Langham, the Edison Lettermen's Club has seen one of its most successful years.

Officers of Lettermen's Club are: Richard Sicker, Tom Thralls, president, Bill Guggin seated, Archie Harrison, Bob Dillman, Russell Beck standing.

Edison is very proud of its Concert Band, which has performed magnificently throughout the year, directed by Mr. Ashley Alexander.

The Band's Winter Concert on January 29 was highlighted by the crowning of Linda Hunter as Band Queen. Cheryl Coiner was honored as Senior Attendant, Jane Wilder was chosen Junior Attendant, and Sharon Gilmore, Sophomore Attendant.

By performing in various assemblies throughout the year, the band has added greatly to the aesthetic enjoyment of the entire student body. Their selections range from the new and popular to the established classics.

Girls who work in the attendance office help the Edison staff keep track of absences each hour. They make a record of each student's school attendance.

Other office assistants are Marilyn Blufstein, Cheryl Bennett, Kay Roney, Vicki Crosser, and Rebecca Moxley.

Marilyn Sparks, Andy Smith, Carl Brown, Sash Dadd, Della Kroege, and Anna Harwood contribute tasks to help Ellen's teacher and coaches in their busy offices.

School personnel are aided in their office duties by these student assistants. Edison girls work in the library, nurses' and counselors' offices and the scheduling and main offices during one of their class hours each day. Our school bank also attributes its efficiency to the skill of its student workers.

Office Assistants

Office assistants help Ellen's business run smoothly. Their service is indispensable to the bank, teachers and school staff.

Each year Edison's chapter of the Charles C. Mason Future Teachers of America serve as teachers' aids and have the opportunity to teach classes one day each spring. Future teachers learned about education in France and Spain from Danielle Priasco and Fernando Mendoza, our foreign exchange students. Diligent practice led the way toward Eagle victories

During the 1964 season, the Eagles played against some of the top powers in the state. Although they were defeated many times, the games were much closer than the scores would indicate. In many games the Eagles outranked their opponents in everything except the final score.

In an offensive battle, the Ponca City Wildcats downed Edison 27-12. Quarterback Kermit Holderman was the driving force in the Eagle attack. He led Edison on marches between the twenty yard lines, but the Eagles could not score despite a closeness to the goal line.

The underdog Eagles defeated the Bartlesville Wildcats 20-7 for an upset victory. This contest marked the most points scored against Bartlesville this season. Randy Purdy passed for three touchdowns to subdue the Bartians.

The Eagles never had more desire to win than they did against the McLain Scots. They capitalized on a fumble and a pass interception to roll to their first victory of the season. The Eagles who were defense-minded held the Scots to just three first downs and 100 yards in total offense. The final score was 22-0 and the Eagles received a moral victory against the McLain team.

At the end of the season the coaches of the Oklahoma-Seven Conference vote for the outstanding players in each offensive and defensive position. Bob Dillman received this honor for his skill at center.

All-City crown highlights successful

Coach Langham

With thirteen returning lettermen, several rising sophomores such as Bill Strong, and many other outstanding boys, it is no wonder that swimming records fell. Diver Luther Lake reached a startling career high of 302.25 points, lacking a heartbreaking .65 points of reaching All American at State. Diver Robert Farrell, too, gave a consistently superior performance, as did Robert Rorschach. Among several individual record-breakers were Jacques Cunningham and Tom Thralls. Relay teams slashed times. In the All-City the 160-yard medley relay team, consisting of John Teal, Bill White, Pat Bryant and Tom Gilliland, broke its own record, set in the preliminaries, with a time of 1:23.7. A new Oklahoma Seven Conference record of 1:11.6 was set by the 160 yard freestyle relay team, which includes Tom Gilliland, Bruce Hicks, Bill Strong and Jacques Cunningham. All in all, many impressive times, split-second finishes, and noteworthy efforts provided an exciting season. Congratulations to the boys and their coach on their fine success!

Under the expert guidance of Coach Tom Langham, Eagle swimmers have compiled a truly praiseworthy record. Under the guidance of Coach Jim Sellers, Edison's wrestlers have added another successful year to what has been a very impressive record. Led by senior co-captains Lloyd Barron and David Williams, the matmen have downed eight opponents and have gained a tie for the conference championship. It was typical for Edison to be behind after the first few matches because of weak nesses in the lighter weights. However, its superiority in the heavier weights provided many exciting, come-from-behind victories. Boys most responsible for the comebacks were David Williams, Gary Gomez, who lost only one match all year, Lloyd Barron, and Archie Harrison. With five sophomores in this year's varsity, things look very promising in the years to come.

Eagles rebound

The one great performer for the A-squad for the past three years, Marty Brown, best outside shooter in the conference and record holder of over 350 points, surpassing former Edison great Don Patterson who chalked up 309 in 1961, took the lead with 327 points after nineteen games. He averaged seventeen points a game, and was second highest scorer in the conference in average.

Behind Brown was the ever-rugged Richard Slicker, who racked to over 225 points for an 11-point average and used his ball-hawking abilities as a delight to the fans. Third senior starter of the year was 5-10 Bruce Riddle who teamed with Slicker for interceptions and fast breaks, had over 150 points and averaged seven points a game.

Two junior starters, David Wagenblatt and George Conger will be back next year to raise the Eagle fortunes even higher, and they will be a fine pair to build from.

Wagenblatt was second to Brown in scoring, hitting almost 250 points for an 11.5 average, and teammate Conger controlling the boards and adding over 125 points of his own.

under Coach Shell.

Edison's high-flying basketballers got off the ground with a spurt this year, closing out the regular season with twelve victories against setbacks, and proving that winning Eagle basketball has been revived under new coach Gene Shell.

Edison opened the season in the Hale tournament, losing their first game to the Hale Rangers, but coming back hard to whip Muskogee and Memorial for fifth in the tourney. During the Oklahoma Seven conference action Edison racked up two victories each over Hale and Rogers, and scored wins over Bartlesville and Muskogee. They made another conquest over ninth-ranked Ponca City, 62-52, which finished second in the loop just a game ahead of the third-place Eagles in league competition. Edison also trounced Webster, 79-69 in the Miami Tourney, barely losing in the semifinals to Washington, 40-38 in overtime. During the season they also put the flame to arch-rival Memorial, burning them up in a 22-5 first quarter shooting spectacular, then scored with all twelve squadmen to slap a 79-33 defeat on the Chargers.

Coach Pierce explains the strategy for an upcoming meet.

Steve Quinn and John Dratz, Edison's top cross-country runners, fight for the lead.

We at Edison have a right to be proud of this year's cross country team. The team fared very well in city competition. Teams from all parts of the state participated in the first annual Edison Invitational cross country meet. Credit for a fine season is due to Coach Hugh Pierce. The boys themselves worked hard for the success of the team. John Dratz gave a tremendous effort for the team throughout the season. Sophomores Steve Quinn and Steve Goad also showed their determination for victory. But cross country is a team sport. Every boy worked very hard and deserves to be recognized. If such an attitude continues, hopes are high for continued success in coming years. Many of the boys in cross country will also be running in track

Last year, the track team was very successful as it won the state championship. Although track suffered the loss of such super-stars as Ben Henneke, Larry Purdy, and Thom Ashby, many lettermen are returning. The concern for the standing of the team, exhibited by everyone last year, is still present. Under the guidance of Coach Hugh Pierce, the boys have been working out during the winter months and were ready to begin a new season when spring rolled around.

Edison's tennis team, guided by Coach Tom Langham, enjoyed a fine season. This year the team faced such perennial state powers as Bartlesville and Ponca City, and was hard pressed for victories. The supreme test came when the tennis team met its conference foes in the annual Oklahoma Seven Conference tournament for the conference championship. Returning lettermen Gary Williams and Jeff King and several rising newcomers worked together to contribute to success.

Thanks to the dedicated efforts of Coach Larry Queen, and to their own skill and enthusiasm, the Eagle golf team showed rapid progress this year. (Only part of the team is pictured here.) There is a sport requiring concentration, precision, and a great deal of practice. Edison golfers worked diligently to acquire these things, appearing on the greens long before the season began. Their efforts and skills were rewarded with success.

Edison's baseball squad dominated almost completely by juniors and sophomores last year, figures to improve on last year's 7-9 record under new Edison coach Don Phillips. Seasoned performers are back to fill every position, and with the right breaks Edison should compete well against Central, Ponca City, and Bartlesville in the northern division of the Oklahoma Seven, and even better against non-loop foes.

Returning are catcher Steve Suckers, who was selected for the all-city squad; and Lloyd Barron, Eagle outfielder who also had a .325 mark while picked to the all-city squad top nine. Other Eagles in the apparent bottomless pit of Edison talent are Richard Slicker, a southpaw rated as the top pitching prospect in the league this year, and who last year hurled two no-hitters; Marty Brown, who came along rapidly as the season progressed last year and should hit for the distance as well as fill the tough shortstop position; and highly-rated pitcher Tom Rothrock, who can also play the outfield.

Scott Harrington returns to fill the second base position and should provide an excellent double-play combination with Brown. Grady Nichols, tall Edison first-sacker, and Gary Brannick, who should make third base stable, return. Letterman Tim Curry is back for another shot at the infield positions, while Randy Purdy is a fast flying outfielder who should aid the defense greatly. Frank Klucvsek, part-time starter last year, should add power to the Edison line-up when needed; and Russel Bock, a fine ballplayer and part-time starter last year at shortstop, finds himself amid a flock of veteran performers but has a good chance of filling his favorite position.

Classes

Edison's senior class officers for 1964-65 are president, Drew Neville; secretary, Janet Cockriel; vice-president, Jim Kothe; social chairman, Melanie Bann; treasurer, David Dimit.

Summertime is no cessation of work for the senior officers who met and planned many of the year's activities before school began.

Senior officers

Our senior class of 1965 is one that will never be forgotten at Edison. We began our year with the impressive figure of 26 National Merit Semifinalists and coming from behind, we made our senior class play, Ondine, one of the most successful plays ever presented at Edison, both dramatically and financially. Our coronation mixer marked the beginning of many senior mixers and dances, climaxed by the annual Christmas dance, the Snow Ball. Our senior class had many firsts: a different Miss Can. and a trophy with all the names of the football queens inscribed on it. We have preserved such traditions as Miss Edison, Mr. Slob, and Mr. Edison. In addition, through the able leadership of our senior board and particularly the dedication of our class sponsor, Mr. Larry Alexander, we know that the memories we take with us from Edison, as we go our separate ways, will never leave our hearts even when the doors of our great high school close behind us for the last time.

In addition to his fine history work, Mr. Alexander serves on the senior class society, proving his excellent leadership which has made Pittsburg senior class so successful.

Junior

Juniors enjoy a year of growth, learning, and achievement in both academic and social life. Through the fine leadership of the officers: Bill White, president; Richard Schermerhorn, vice president; Lucy Murray, secretary; Gerry Sobel, treasurer; and Sandy Bodley, social chairman, and the help of Junior Board and Mr. John Butts, class sponsor, the Junior class excels.

Juniors plan and support class functions with ingenuity and enthusiasm. By taking part in activities like the Junior Mixer, the hilarious class play Farewell, Farewell, Eugene, and the annual Spring Dance, they find friends, satisfaction, and never-to-be-forgotten experiences.

For Juniors this is a year of new responsibilities, goals, and plans for the future. With the ingredients of talent, enthusiasm, and excellence, the class of 1966 is recognized as a superior group.

Sophomores

Sophomore's first year in Edison High School is a step in an entire new phase in their teen years. To orientate the new students and to introduce them formally to Thomas Edison, the movie, "The Man", was shown on February 8. To help make the year more interesting and fulfilling, the sophomores held one mixer and one dance. They also sponsored a very successful film, "To Catch A Thief", on Friday, November 6 and presented a play on March 19-20. At Christmas time, the class donated a revolving Christmas tree to the Tulsa Boys' Home. They actively participated in the all school can goods drive, bringing in over 2,500 cans. Also, Dress-Up Day proved favorable to all students. The officers, along with their able faculty sponsor, Mr. Bardrick, and also the willing and volunteering sophomores who accepted many undertakings, have contributed much to make the 1964-65 school year one to remember.

Mr. Hancock, sophomore class speaker, who heartily supports the endeavors of the class of 1907.

At meeting held in class room, the officers of the class business will preside.

Eighth grade

The eighth grade officers do their best to provide their fellow students with a successful, enjoyable year. Activities designed to obtain this goal range from homeroom aid for needy families during the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays to a dance held in conjunction with the ninth grade. Setting an example for their classmates are Chris Benson, president; Ruth Shapiro, vice-president; Susan Wilbanks, secretary; and Sally Martin, treasurer.

A black and white photograph of a person standing on a beach, looking out at the ocean under a cloudy sky. The person is in the lower right foreground, wearing a light-colored dress or robe. The ocean stretches across the middle ground, and a dark, silhouetted shoreline with trees is visible in the background. The sky is filled with soft, textured clouds.

" . . . I've trod the untrodden sanctity of space, put out my hand, and touched the face of God."
